

The main aim of this blog is to connect, share and exchange ideas with you...

by Narendra Modi 12. September 2009 17:42

Friends,

Interacting with you through the blog and reading your comments is an enjoyable experience and I always look forward to more opportunities. In fact, it has become a significant part of my work routine. Your support not only encourages me but it also gives me the energy.

Quite a Few friends have repeatedly asked whether I actually read your comments or not. So once again I repeat, Yes, I do read each and every comment on the blog with much interest though I am unable to reply to each comment individually due to time constraints. Since a very long time I have been thinking of putting across two points on the topic of this blog, your comments and you, my friends. So let's talk about this today.

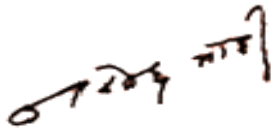

hurt a certain section. We should refrain from doing so. It is important to understand that with freedom comes responsibility.

participation of 'people' to strengthen all the elements of democracy; and thus put Gujarat and India on the road map to glory.

That is it for today...

And yes, I thank all the friends whose comments have been a source of inspiration as well as energy to me.

Yours truly,

My warm thanks to . . .
